2. Communications between us

Communications between us in relation to any products or services which we provide to you which are within the scope of the (recast) Markets in Financial Instruments Directive 2014/65/EU (“MiFID II”), as implemented into UK law, shall be in English.

Generally, including, where relevant, for the purposes of any order you wish to place with us, you may communicate with us as through your usual HSBC representative, through one of the following means:

- i. by post, personal delivery or in person at our registered office set out above;
- ii. by telephone; and
- iii. where we agree, by email.

In any situations where you are obliged to communicate with us in writing, please do so:

- i. by post or personal delivery to our registered office, marked to the attention of your usual HSBC representative; or
- ii. where we agree, by sending an email to an email address that we will provide you for the purpose from time to time.

3. Recording and monitoring of communications

In certain circumstances, communications in relation to the business conducted between us (including emails, voicemail, online chat conversations, telephone calls and website usage records) as well as paper correspondence such as envelopes or packages may be monitored, recorded or inspected (as appropriate) using monitoring devices or other technical or physical means. The monitoring of communications may take place where deemed necessary for purposes permitted by law from time to time, including without limitation to record evidence of business transactions and so as to ensure compliance with HSBC’s regulatory obligations and its policies and procedures.

As required by applicable law and regulation, HSBC will record telephone conversations and electronic communications that result in transactions or that may result in transactions which fall within the scope of MiFID II.

Where HSBC is required to record communications under the rules of the Financial Conduct Authority (“FCA”), a copy of the recording of those communications referred to in the preceding paragraph will be made available to you on request for a period of five years from the date of the communication. The FCA may request that we retain certain or specific records for longer than five years and, if it does, the records retained as a result of such a request will be available to you for a period of up to seven years.

Any telephone conversations and electronic communications that are recorded for the purposes described here may be recorded without use of a warning tone or other notification. All recordings and other records shall be and remain HSBC's sole property.

4. Conflicts of interest

Situations can arise where our interests, or those of our staff, conflict with your interests or where your interests compete with those of other clients of ours.

The way in which we address any actual or potential conflicts of interest and a description of our conflicts of interest policy can be accessed through the website link indicated below. Our conflicts of interest policy sets out in more detail the circumstances which may constitute or may give rise to a conflict of interest, the procedures we will follow and the measures we will adopt to prevent or manage such conflicts. Where you request, we will provide you with further information on our conflicts of interest policy.

Additional disclosures in relation to our conflicts of interest policy, our general policy relating to payments to or from third parties and in relation to the services we provide to you that are within the scope of MiFID II, will be available on or prior to 3rd January 2018 via
